

Thomas Hindman (1828-1868) was a brigadier general for the Confederacy during the Civil War. Prior to the war, Hindman was a lawyer and politician. Hindman was instrumental in Arkansas's secession from the Union. He later led Confederate troops at the Battle of Prairie Grove. Hindman was killed after the war in 1868 by an unknown attacker.

THOMAS HINDMAN

THIS POSTER IS BROUGHT TO YOU BY THE
DEPARTMENT OF ARKANSAS HERITAGE
(WE'RE AWESOME.)

www.arkansasheritage.com